

Interfaculty Synergy: Creating Collaboration and Cooperation Between Faculties

13 March 2024 | 9 AM - 5 PM |

Venue: Daisy Room, Level 2, Le Quadri Hotel KL

Overview

Interfaculty Synergy: Creating collaboration and cooperation Between Faculties is a activity filled experiential journey about gelling and getting people to work as a team to meet the organizational deliverables. Teams will be exposed to ideas and concept of working professionally despite the differences and staying focused on the big picture. The program incorporates interesting team challenges that will take participants through a learning expedition of self-discovery.

Sivanesuvar V. Appukuddy
Master Trainer

Who Should Attend?

This training is applicable for any division, or department and is aimed to bring people together to work as a strong team in the organization. It is also customizable for management or for staff, depending on the objectives of the training

Program Objectives

Improve performance by generating options and thinking out of the box

Come together and work as a strong team to meet the organizational deliverables while staying focused on the big picture.

Optimizing resources better in order to improve bottom line results

For more information, kindly contact Ridhwan from GHR (Ext 2417) and submit TRF to muhammadridhwan@ucsigroup.com.my